Gallery Exhibitions

ArtServe presents several organized exhibits annually to allow members and area artists the opportunity to gain valuable exhibition experience, sell their work, and have their work seen by potential gallery owners, curators, and public patrons that don't typically frequent an art gallery. ArtServe's menu of services affords exhibiting artists and arts organizations public relations and marketing support for their exhibits. All art presented is available for sale, and ArtServe handles all sales for the artists.

oAt least 11 exhibits each year are showcased in the main gallery. Featured work includes paintings, photography, sculptures, installation pieces, film, fashion and performance art.

oMonthly exhibits are presented by individual artists in each of two smaller gallery spaces. These spaces are available to rent by our member artists for solo exhibitions.

oExhibits are promoted by ArtServe through a range of vehicles that include direct mail, email, social media, grass roots marketing, press releases, print ads and radio spots.

Visitors to ArtServe and attendees to events hosted at ArtServe and the Fort Lauderdale Branch Library all have the opportunity to view these exhibits and purchase local works of art that enrich our community and

The ArtServe auditorium and gallery space are often used by area artists to conduct concerts, plays, spoken word events, music recitals and more performance-based programming. To widen our services to musicians, poets, singers and spoken word artists, ArtServe continually creates new programming opportunities. Recently two new programs - Open Mic Tuesdays and The VoiceBox - were are launched to provide a stage for new voices. Open Mic night has seen musicians, singers, poets, spoken word artists and comedians take the stage. For some it's their first time on stage, while for seasoned veterans it is a chance to try out new material. In the same vein, The VoiceBox is a monthly open mic night for teen spoken word artists. Offered in partnership with the Jason Taylor Foundation, new voices fill the auditorium with inspirational performances. The ArtServe venue continues to also serve as host for free Jazz Jams, film nights and other performances.

Arts in Education Programs

In an effort to cultivate the next generation of cultural leaders, ArtServe develops innovative arts in education programs that engage youth, such as the ARTrepreneurs program and Short Play Festival. This free summer program teaches teens interested in building careers in the theatrical field the business side of the arts. They learn everything from developing a business plan to marketing your brand, culminating with the production of one-act plays conceived, written, and produced by the teen participants. With this model being easily adapted to other mediums, ARTrepreneurs is a keynote program in a growing commitment toward nurturing both artistic excellence and entrepreneurship in arts education. Additional arts in education programs include the VoiceBox open mic program for teens, by teens, a student internship program, and the new student membership program that allows students to exhibit and participate in ArtServe programs for a nominal cost. New programs are in the development and funding stages, with launch dates set for the near future.

Membership Support Programs

ArtServe provides an ongoing stream of member benefits and services that support entrepreneurial growth for artists and organizations including: An online gallery for all members to showcase their talents. Weekly eblasts and social media posts feature member-based activities. ArtServe members are frequently contracted to perform at outside events and venues. Cross-collaborations forged by ArtServe allow member work to be seen and sold at alternate venues throughout the County. Professional Development Workshops are offered free to members conducted by industry professionals who provide educational insights on topics like pricing your art, trademark & copyright protections, branding and the elements for mounting a solo exhibition. On-site kiosks and signage are available for members to showcase their own events, and ArtServe arranges for members to be regularly featured in the press.

Other Programs

A vast array of new and ongoing programs are offered each year at ArtServe. They may encompass one-time special events, such as a key milestone anniversary celebration. They may also be new projects being tested to build new audiences and produce an ongoing revenue stream, such as the launch of the Open Mic Tuesdays program. Other programs may also include strategic partnerships and alliances formed with other organizations, such as The VoiceBox series, presented in partnership with the Jason Taylor Foundation. This new program is mission related, solidifies a bond with several important community partners, and may also turn into an ongoing revenue source over time, or develop into ongoing core programs for the organization. While each program maintains its own cost center, programs are included in the "special programs" category until they warrant more individual recognition.

A significant portion of the "other programs" category is comprised of "Collaborative Programs." Collaborative programs represent mission-related alliances formed in an effort to generate new areas of exposure and sales for ArtServe and ArtServe member artists. Collaborative partners can include venues, such as Arts Bunker, a hotel or performing arts center gift shop, where ArtServe member items are sold to the public. The programs can also take the form of an event where a collaborative partner approaches ArtServe to provide the artistic services for a fee at the event. ArtServe then connects the artist with the partner to facilitate the art component which can include hiring a musician, dancer or performing artist, or hiring an artist to mural a wall or paint live at an event. ArtServe provides this as a service to members by connecting the community at large with the artist community, and facilitating and new mutually beneficial and fee-based partnership.
