ArtServe Presents “The Art of Language: Celebrating the Aesthetic and Intellectual Beauty of Words”

Exhibition opens June 26 with a free public reception featuring interpretive dance and literary-inspired artwork

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (June 9, 2026) – ArtServe will debut its newest exhibition, “The Art of Language: Celebrating the Aesthetic and Intellectual Beauty of Words,” on June 26, 2026. The exhibition runs through August 28, 2026, and opens with a free public reception on Friday, June 26 at 6 p.m.

Exploring the intersection of visual art and language, the exhibition highlights the aesthetic and artistic value of the written word through works inspired by storytelling, poetry, calligraphy, literature and other language-based art forms. The exhibition invites visitors to consider how words can transcend communication to become powerful artistic expression.

This program is supported by Funding Arts Broward, supporting innovative local visual and performing arts and arts education in Broward County.

Opening night will feature a special interpretive dance performance choreographed by Emily Caravella, bringing themes of language, movement and expression to life. Throughout the exhibition run, visitors will also have the opportunity to view a collection of calligraphy and illuminated manuscripts provided by Tony Pastucci, showcasing the historic and visual beauty of the written word across cultures and centuries.

“Language shapes how we understand ourselves, connect with others and experience the world around us,” said Jason Hughes, CEO of ArtServe. “This exhibition celebrates the creativity that emerges when artists transform words into visual experiences, reminding us that language itself can be a powerful art form.”

In conjunction with the group exhibition, ArtServe will also present “Ceramic Sculpture by Walter O’Neill,” a solo exhibition featuring the artist’s distinctive ceramic works. Together, the
